

CRITICAL PRAISE FOR

ROSE COUSINS'

NATURAL CONCLUSION

"When Rose Cousins sings she soars and swoops, never to show off but always in service to the song...the Canadian's glorious alto provides instant gratification on Natural Conclusion, but the charms of her compositions reveal themselves more slowly."

AP Associated Press

"Indeed, Cousins' new album ever-so-gently but deeply caresses her exquisite vocals through a dozen songs that form an exploratory, intimate meditation on the mysteries of being human: identity, frailty, relationships, the nature of love and spiritual connection."

Los Angeles Times

"...Rose Cousins strips songs to their pointed and somber essence...She has a commanding, thoughtful voice that recalls Patty Griffin's...but it's also full of longing and tenderness."

The Philadelphia Inquirer

"Rose's voice and songwriting chops can stand on their own, but she's a constant collaborator with an incredible ability—in and out of music—to bring people together."

wyep
91.3

"It's always best to turn to Rose Cousins if you have some feelings that really need to be felt; somehow, the Nova Scotia singer-songwriter's life-saving writing and beautiful voice help with that every time."

npr Heavy Rotation

"...elegant and profoundly moving...beautiful depth and meticulous song-craft..."

Elmore
SAVING AMERICAN MUSIC

"...her voice draws you in until you realize you are at the heart of the storm."

theguardian

"It's a beautiful album, and its quiet mood illustrates its author's reflective journey, equally offering that opportunity to its listener. Cousins is at home in a genre of singer-songwriters that provide entertaining, enjoyable records that additionally push for greater solace and weight in the music and messages they convey."

popMATTERS

"The album is full of space, exquisitely stitched into each lyric and musical arrangement."

THE BLUEGRASS SITUATION

"Cousins and Henry have created an emotional landscape full of beauty and conquest. It is formidable."

NO DEPRESSION

"...Cousins possesses a great gift of a voice. Supple, warm, and jazz-inflected, it's an instrument equally capable of power and restraint."

TONEAudio

"The beauty housed within the 12 remarkable tracks on Natural Conclusion... is effortless and complex at once—likely one of the best records this year will have to offer."

MOTHER CHURCH PEW

"...an album both graceful and poignant."

TWANGVILLE

For more information, please contact Nick Mallchok, Chris Schimpf or Carla Sacks at Sacks & Co., 212.741.1000., nick.mallchok@sacksco.com, chris.schimpf@sacksco.com or carla@sacksco.com.